PRIVACY NOTICE

Broadstone Real Estate LLC is committed to protecting your personal privacy. To understand how we protect the information we receive from and about you, this notice describes our current privacy policy and practices.

We want you to know that:

- We do not sell or rent the information we have about you to anyone;
- We do not share your information with outside companies for the purpose of selling their products or services to you; and
- We do not offer a right to opt out of sharing your information with others because we only do so as permitted or required by law.

Information We May Collect And From Whom

We collect your personal information to offer you investment services. The type of information we collect and the extent to which it is used depends on the services we provide to you. For example, we may obtain information such as:

- Your name, address, email, date of birth, telephone number, Social Security number, employment, occupation, assets, credit report and income from applications and other forms from you; and
- Your use of our Web site as accumulated by Google Analytics data collection service.

Information We May Disclose

We may share the types of information described above with others as authorized by you or as permitted or required by law. These may include disclosures:

- To others that perform business services or functions on our behalf or to serve you;
- To law enforcement agencies to help prevent fraud or illegal activities;
- To government or regulatory agencies to comply with the law or regulations;
- To authorized persons to respond to a subpoena, warrant or other court order; and
- To our affiliates who may provide financial products and services to you.

When information about you is disclosed to others, we require them to use reasonable efforts to protect your information and only for the data for the limited purpose for which it was shared.

Your Rights

In general, you have the right to review your personal information that we have. If you believe that any of the information about you is not accurate, you may inform us in writing of any changes you believe should be made. We will review your request and respond to it accordingly.

Confidentiality And Security

We restrict access to information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide services to you. We safeguard your information through written privacy policies and physical, electronic and procedural protections.

Further Information

We will advise you of our privacy policy at least once a year. We may change our privacy policy at any time. As long as you remain a customer, we will inform you of any changes. If your relationship with us ends, we will continue to limit disclosures of your information in accordance with our stated privacy policy.
